If you are a young Ukrainian dancer over the age of thirteen and are looking to improve your skills and knowledge of Ukrainian dance and its culture, than you have come to the right place. "Poltava on the Prairies," presented by the Ukrainian Canadian Congress - Saskatchewan Provincial Council, promises to deliver a one of a kind dancing experience for you and your friends. Taking place at the wonderful St. Peters Abbey out near the town of Muenster, you will enjoy an exciting rural setting where you will stay for two nights, learning innovative and interesting dance steps and choreography, meeting new people who are also enthusiastic about their passion of dance, and gaining cultural understanding of central Ukraine in a fun and unique way!

- Improve Ukrainian dancing technique and stage presence.
- Gain a greater knowledge and appreciation of Ukrainian culture and traditions.
- Learn about regionally correct dance steps, music, costumes and choreography
- Make new friends and share your love of dance!

INSTRUCTOR: MR. SHANE GIBSON

Shane Gibson is a former member and past President of the Ukrainian Shumka Dancers, with whom he danced for more than 14 years. During his involvement with Shumka, he toured extensively throughout Canada, the United States and China as a cast member of Absolutely Shumka, Cobbler's Princess and Cinderella. Mr. Gibson has received training in Character Ballet, Jazz, Modern, and Musical Theatre and has worked and trained with several celebrated artists in North America and Ukraine.

Mr. Gibson has complimented his dance training with studies in gross human anatomy/physiology, biomechanics, and visual and performing arts. Shane has shared his love of dance with students across Western Canada as an Artistic Director, Instructor or Adjudicator and is currently focused on developing and delivering quality professional development and resources for Ukrainian dance instructors!
